

90th ANNIVERSARY AUTUMN ASSEMBLY AND ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

On Friday 4 October, we will gather in the beautiful city of York for the 90th Anniversary Autumn Assembly. We will meet at York Minster at 3.00pm for a guided tour of the Minster. There will be some free time to explore the Undercroft Museum and Crypts before Evensong. Then we will move on to dinner at a local restaurant.

On Saturday, 5 October, our day starts at 10.00am at the English Martyrs RC Church, Dalton Terrace, YO24 4DA. After Morning Prayer, Mary Ryan, Trustee of the Society, will present 90 years of SSG – the uncut version!

After lunch and our AGM, our Chairman, Monsignor Kevin McGinnell, will deliver the Annual Crichton Memorial Lecture: Quo Vadis? Unfinished Work. We will close with Mass at 3.30 pm.

We welcome members and friends, old and new, to this Assembly in our 90th Anniversary year.

If you would like to book a place, please complete and return the booking form on the reverse either by email or post, or visit www.ssg.org.uk to book online. Bookings should be made by 20 September 2019, please.

When booking, please advise whether you have any special dietary requirements so we can cater for you on Saturday.
