Liturgy and music alive in the Church today

Are you a choir director, organist, singer, instrumentalist, reader, catechist, teacher, priest, deacon, religious involved in liturgy and music, or worshipper in the pew?

If so, then the Society of Saint Gregory is for you.

Founded in 1929 to promote active participation in the liturgy, Society of Saint Gregory strives to promote good practice in the celebration of the Liturgy of the Catholic Church in accordance with the Church's teachings, traditions, principles and norms. We welcome Christians of any denomination as members.

Music and Liturgy, our thrice-yearly journal, is mailed to all members of the Society. Articles include practical liturgical formation and thought-provoking reflections. Each issue also contains Preparing the Liturgy, which includes commentary on the readings, and suggestions for preparing music and intercessions, for the principal celebrations of the Liturgical Year.

Membership provides many opportunities for learning, developing skills and sharing with others the mission of the Church. Our annual Summer School offers a series of lectures, workshops and seminars on a range of liturgical and musical topics. The Winter Assembly includes the annual Crichton Memorial Lecture and seminars. Composers' Forum meets for workshops and discussions. We also have web-based resources and an active discussion Forum.
